KEHILAT HANA HAR HOSTS 'CHINESE FOOD & A MOVIE' NIGHT

NEW HOPE, Pa. – In keeping with the tradition of many Jewish families, Kehilat HaNahar, the Little Shul by the River, will host a Chinese Food and a Movie night on Dec. 24.

The event, which is open to the public, will offer area residents a chance to take part in a traditional, albeit unofficial, Jewish custom.

“We’re delighted that so many people come and share this special evening with us,” said Rabbi Sandy Roth. “We join together for good food, good company and a good movie. This year, we’re expecting even more people to take part in this ‘Jewish’ custom.”

Kehilat HaNahar’s Chinese Food & a Movie night will be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 24 at the synagogue. People need not be Jewish to attend. Non-members of the Shul are asked to contribute $10 per adult and $5 per child under 13 to cover the cost of food. Members are asked to pay $7 for adults and $3 for children. To make reservations, call 215-862-1912 or send e-mail to littleshul@kehilathanahar.org.

Kehilat HaNahar is a Reconstructionist Synagogue in the heart of New Hope. In addition to traditional weekly Shabbat services, Rabbi Sandy Roth leads monthly family, children’s, meditation and musical services, as well as a host of continuing education programs, and a rich Shul school curriculum. For membership information,
