

News Release

For Immediate Release:
Thursday, July 28, 2011

Contact: Sheila Steinberg
215-862-1912
Sheila@kehilathanahar.org

KEHILAT HANA HAR'S NEW RABBI

NEW HOPE, Pa. – Kehilat Hanahar, The Little Shul by the River in New Hope, joyfully welcomes its new spiritual leader, Rabbi Diana Miller. Recently ordained by the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College in Wyncote, she succeeds the late Rabbi Sandy Roth, the congregation's founding rabbi. Rabbi Diana brings enthusiasm, compassion and dynamic intellect to Kehilat HaNahar.

Rabbi Diana holds a Bachelor's degree cum laude in Women's Studies from Barnard College, a Masters in Social Work from Hunter College, and a Masters of Hebrew Letters from the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College. She brings with her varied and comprehensive professional experience in pastoral care, education, interfaith work, and community organizing in Philadelphia, Brooklyn and Bennington, Vermont. Personal interests include meditation and yoga instruction, in which she is certified, and the love of Judaism.

Rabbi Diana begins her formal duties at Kehilat HaNahar on August 1, 2011 and will lead her first official Kabbalat Shabbat service on Friday, August 5, 2011. Members of Bucks, Hunterdon and Mercer counties are invited to meet Rabbi Diana and welcome her into our midst. Kehilat HaNahar anticipates an era of exciting engagement and growth under her charismatic leadership.

###